BIOGRAPHY

Laura owns and runs her own law practice, as well as Financial Innovations, LLC, a financial planning firm. Laura started her own law firm the summer of 1997. She has worked as a financial planner since 1990. In addition, Laura has been a Certified Public Accountant since 1992. She is also licensed to practice law in not only Georgia, but also in Florida. Laura also has earned the designation of CFP® (Certified Financial Planner™) and CSA (Certified Senior Advisor)®.

Her law practice's primary focus is estate tax planning. This includes Last Wills and Testaments and Revocable Trusts for single individuals, married couples, US citizens, as well as non US citizens, clients who have special needs children, and tax planning (for example, Credit Shelter Trusts, Marital Trusts and Irrevocable Trusts).

Her financial planning firm focuses on comprehensive financial plans and working with families as their financial consultant on a fee basis (not focusing on selling products).

Laura's financial planning practice, as well as her law practice are unique, in that, her staff consists primarily of mothers who work flexible hours so that they may care for their children full-time, and continue to work.

Her services outside the firm includes, formerly acting on the Board of the Boys & Girls Club of Brookhaven for four years. She is also active in numerous organizations in Atlanta.

Laura has accomplished her primary goal to create a complete business that enables her to fully serve her clients.
